

Privacy & Security

Felton Communication is committed to keeping customer information confidential and used solely for the purpose of serving you better in this and future Walk to Work Week campaigns. We will, at all times, process and utilise the personal information you provide in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. We will not store your name, address, e-mail address or any other information specific to you unless you provide this information when completing your registration details at the end of the order process. When you place your order, we only gather the information necessary to complete your order and nothing more. We will pass on your name, organisation, email address and order confirmation only to our partner charity, Living Streets. Living Streets is the national charity which runs the Walking Works campaign. Living Streets will store this information to ensure your experience as a valued customer and participant is best served for the duration of this campaign and future walking campaigns. Living Streets will not pass on your details to any third party.
